Dear Sirs.

Yours of the 17th was received, enclosing list of coins. I appreciate your remembrance of me on account of some small purchases made of you a little while since. "Once a collector always a collector" is supposed to be true of us all, but I am not collecting Greek coins now. Your list contains many interesting pieces, yet none that I feel justified in keeping.

My special aim of late has been toward Bible countries, Bible cities, and Jewish coins, or those of sovereigns ruling over the Jews, as the Ptolemies.
I have got about as far in it as I can go for the present.

Again thanking you for your courtesy, and hoping not to be altogether out of your memory in the future, I return your list regretting that I cannot retain any from the inviting collection.

Yours Respectfully
John C. Labaree.

Labaree
